We have just received a letter from Skawina, inviting Thetford to send people of all ages to take part in the 5th International Race Skawina 'Keep your Mind Sober' on 28th April 2007

The purpose of the event is to encourage running as a leisure activity; promote a healthy lifestyle, sobriety and positive models of behaviour, and develop activity and creativity. There is a variety of races, with cash prizes and gifts from the sponsor.

Anyone wishing to know more or to take part should contact Barrie on 754414.

RAMBLERS:

The group of ramblers from Les Ulis will be arriving on Tuesday 15th May and returning on Tuesday 22nd May. There will be up to twelve of them; some singles, some couples; all retired. They intend to do several short walks from Thetford and back, of up to 20 km. They will need a breakfast and an evening meal only as they will eat out at lunchtime.

If you can host anyone, please let Catherine Dubois Goodall know (01842) 750866.
